ABA RULE OF LAW INITIATIVE

The Legal Education and Development (LEAD) Fellowship Program for Tajikistan provides master's level study of law in the United States for current resident citizens of Tajikistan.

The purpose of the program is to strengthen rule of law culture in Tajikistan by providing exceptional legal professionals with a broader understanding of comparative systems of law and increased opportunities to discuss Tajik and US law.

The LEAD Program is a program of the Bureau of International Narcotics and Law Enforcement Affairs (INL) of the U.S. Department of State and is implemented by ABA ROLI and IREX.

Participants are selected through an open, merit-based competition.

Fellows will:

- Enroll in a fulltime Master of Laws (LL.M.) academic program for one year.
- Collaborate with an ABA ROLI mentor during the program.
- Participate in a volunteer project during the first academic year that benefits the local community.
- Take part in an internship following academic coursework.

The fellowship is fully funded and provides:

- J-1 visa support
- Round-trip travel from fellow's home city in Tajikistan to host institution in the United States;
- Monthly living stipend;
- Accident and sickness coverage;
- Tuition and mandatory university fees;
- Limited allowance for textbooks;
- Pre-academic English language training (if necessary);
- Alumni networking and training opportunities.

Application Deadline: 5:00 PM, Tuesday, February 23, 2010

Applications for the Legal Education and Development (LEAD) Fellowship Program for Tajikistan can be obtained from and submitted to the IREX office in Tajikistan.
